

Pollinators of Wisconsin

Black Swallowtail (Papilio polyxenes)

- Wings are black with rows of yellow spots
- Red eyespot and narrow lobe or “tail” on hindwings
- Caterpillars feed on dill, parsley, fennel other carrot family plants
- Females are slightly larger than males and have more blue on wings
- Adults feed on a variety of flower nectar

Scan for more information:

Extension
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON